75TH REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION

Republic Day commemorates the promulgation of India's constitution and the 26 January 1950 republican transition of the nation. The school's pupils participate in a magnificent procession and cultural extravaganza as part of the annual activities to honour the occasion. The celebration started at 9:30 a.m. Col (Retd) KJS Randhawa, the school's director, unfurled the national flag to kick off the festivities. The four houses, the school band, and the NCC Cadets then paraded in a ceremonial fashion. The director presented the class winners with trophies after giving an energizing speech. The National Anthem and a vote of gratitude from the principal, Ms. Anila Nair, brought the celebration to a close.
